

IMPROVE YOUR QUILTING SKILL

EXPAND YOUR QUILTING FRIENDSHIPS

In addition to the social aspects, INMO's quarterly meetings provide you the opportunity to become a better quilter. Our Spring Workshops give you the chance to learn from award-winning, national instructors. In 2014, Judy Woodworth will be presenting two workshops and we have tentatively scheduled Kimmy Brunner for 2015. Quilters of all skill levels benefit from INMO membership. We hope you'll join us.

INMQ MEETING SCHEDULE

Our membership includes quilters from Washington, Idaho, Montana and Canada. We meet at the Quilting Bee in Spokane Valley, Washington.

All meetings include ample time for social interaction as well as show-and-tell.

January – 10:00-Noon. Get ready for a year of quilting by catching up with INMQ members.

March – 10:00-3:00. This is a longer meeting to allow time for an educational program and a potluck. INMQ usually has a full-day workshop the day prior to the March membership meeting. The workshop presenter is a nationally known teacher giving members a wonderful opportunity to hone and expand their quilting skills.

September – 10:00-Noon. Time to catch up from the summer and to talk about upcoming INMQ workshops and activities.

November – 10:00-3:00. This is a longer meeting to allow time for an educational program and a potluck.

DO YOU QUILT ...

WHO IS INMQ?

Inland Northwest Machine Quilters (INMQ) members come from Washington, Idaho, Montana and Canada. INMQ's mission is to promote the art of machine quilting through education and fellowship.

Our group of machine quilters meets four times a year in Spokane. At every general meeting we include "Did You Know?" topics and discussion, "Tips, Tricks or Techniques" presentations by our members, feedback from members on "How Do I Quilt This?" and, of course, "Show and Tell".

INMQ is a resource gold mine for all machine quilters. We have guest lecturers, demonstrations, and announcements of new products.

Membership is open to anyone who is interested in the art of machine quilting. Quilters of any age who use domestic sewing machines or mid-arm machines or long-arm machines, quilt artists, and those who quilt for pleasure and/or business will benefit from INMQ membership. Annual dues are only $20.00.

Our members have a variety of experience from the newest beginner learning to stipple and on to the seasoned professional who has been in business for years. INMQ members share ideas, discuss techniques and encourage each other to expand and enhance their quilting skills.

At least once a year INMQ brings in a national-level instructor to provide educational workshops to our membership.

WHAT OUR MEMBERS HAVE TO SAY

"We [INMQ] have an amazing quilting community!"

BELONGING TO INMQ HAS ITS PERKS!

- Expand your quilt-related resources and improve your quilting knowledge
- Network with other quilters
- Annual workshops (only open to INMQ members) by national presenters (Judy Woodworth in 2014, Kimmy Brunner in 2015). Past workshop presenters include Lisa Calle, Sharon Chamber, and Pam Clarke. This alone is worth the $20 membership cost!
- Online opportunities to get help and advice from other machine quilters.
- Quarterly meetings to share your work or get suggestions on "how do I quilt that?".
- Challenge yourself by participating in the INMQ annual challenge quilt.
- Join in the quarterly block exchange where you can expand your creativity by drawing your quilting design on the block.
